

Danielle Wertz is an internationally recognized jazz vocalist, composer, arranger and educator from Falls Church, Virginia. After being named a semi-finalist in the 2015 Thelonious Monk International Jazz Vocals Competition, she self-released a duo project with Israeli pianist, Tal Cohen. The album was recorded at ABC Studios in Sydney, Australia, and has been receiving high praise since its release in 2017. Danielle currently lives in Berkeley, CA and is quickly gaining recognition as one of the Bay Area's most in-demand vocalists. She frequently plays at local venues including the Black Cat and Red Poppy Art House, as well as larger-scale national venues including Blues Alley in Washington, DC. Danielle has recently been asked to participate in the 2019 Zoo Labs Music Residency Program to record her next album.
